

THE BOOKMARK

OLD FORGE LIBRARY

SPRING 2018

President's Message

I've written a lot of President's Messages over the past couple of decades, and every time Lizzie asks me to write one, I spend a lot of time wondering, "What will I write about this time?" This always gets me thinking about what the Old Forge Library means to me:

The Library is welcoming. It welcomed me when I came in for the first time more than thirty years ago. It welcomed my children as they grew up. Now it's welcoming my grandsons. With your support, it will be here to welcome their children as well.

The Library is informative and interesting. If you're looking for information about our community, it's here. If you're interested in finding out something about the rest of the world, it's here. If you're looking for a cultural event on a winter night or on a rainy summer day, it's here. With your support, this important source of information and entertainment will always be here.

The Library provides a great way to participate in our community. Whether it's volunteering as a Friend or board member, or simply participating in one of our programs, the library lets everyone, year-round resident or seasonal visitor, play a role. Your active participation demonstrates your support.

The library has meant a lot to me and has contributed to the quality of my and my family's lives for a long time. This spring, we'll be asking for your support for the Library's request for additional funds to support for our activities. We think we're worth every penny and we are sure you do, too.

Happy spring. See you at the Library.
